

NAME:

PERIOD:

DATE:

Classification Review Sheet

Answer the questions as best you can. Use your book or notes to help.

1. List the taxonomic groups below, in order, from largest to smallest. (Hint: one is given)
 , phylum, , , &

2. What is the largest taxonomic group?

3. What is the smallest taxonomic group?

4. What scientist first organized living things by where they lived: water, air, or land.

5. What scientist organized organisms with scientific names.

6. What language is used for scientific names?

7. In the scientific name Homo sapiens what part is the genus part?

8. In the scientific name Homo sapiens what part is the species part?

9. Carolus Linnaeus created what classification system?

10. Similarities between body structures (internal and external) that are used to classify organisms are called their...

11. Living things should not be classified based on what two things?

12. The branch of science that deals with grouping and naming organisms is ...

13. Monkeys and humans are said to have similar... (use the vocabulary word, you should have used it once already!)

14. Whose early classification system turned out to be no good because of frogs, ducks, etc?

15. In a lion's scientific name, Panthera leo, what genus group is a lion in?

