

NAME:

PERIOD:

DATE:

Characteristics of Organisms Homework #1

Use your notes to answer these questions.

1. True or False. All living things have a way to move from place to place.
2. True or False. All living things are made of at least one cell.
3. The length of time an organism is expected to live is its _____.
4. All organisms use energy. This means they...
 A. eat things B. breathe C. make wastes D. all of these
5. When organisms get bigger they are _____
 When organisms are going through changes (like puberty) they are _____
6. When living things make more of themselves, they are _____
7. Another word for any living thing is _____
8. A sound you hear is a _____ to you and your _____ is how you react to that sound.
9. _____ is a word that describes how your body keeps your heart beating, your body temperature the same, and you breathing even while you sleep.
10. Describe one way that you react and respond to your environment.

